Brief Product Information:

We want to know what is going through your head already. Tell us a little about your ideas. Remember in order for us to judge your product you must submit an STL file and a 3-5 minute video of you presenting your concept. You will submit this to us when you have finished your design. Don't forget to turn in this form first, before you start drawing. Be as creative as you can possibly be!

Do you or your team have any ideas for a product you can improve yet?

If yes, give us an idea of what you're thinking about doing.
