Advancing Innovation with High-Productivity Computing Tuesday, April 8, 2008

HP and PADT would like to invite you to a free, one-day CAE symposium. This event is the premier CAE event for customers in multiple industries including aerospace, automotive, semiconductor, consumer electronics, defense and security. Seating is limited – register today.

For questions, please contact Christine Fronczak.

This popular one-day symposium will include over 20 of the industry's leading CAE applications experts, industry speakers and more than 200 engineers and managers to discuss current technology trends in computational engineering. This is your opportunity to meet with your peers in the CAE community.

Keynote presentations

- "The Unexpected Challenges of an Evolving Enterprise - New Demands on CAE"
John S. Hurley, Ph.D., Sr. Manager Distributed Computing, Networked Systems Technology, The Boeing Company
- "HPC and CAE: Trends and Paradoxes"
Knute Christensen, Worldwide HPC Solutions Marketing Manager, Hewlett-Packard

PADT presentation

PADT is pleased to be offering the following presentation at the 19th Annual HP CAE Symposium:

- "Real World Trends in CAE: Simulation Driven Product Development (SDPD) Goes Mainstream"
